

It's a new day for nuclear.

Paragon has joined the Mirion family.

"Like Paragon, Mirion is focused on providing high-quality, innovative products to support the nuclear industry. Together, we will strengthen the current operating fleet as well as successfully work to bring the next generation of SMRs on-line."

Doug VanTassell,
Paragon President and CEO

"The complementary capabilities of Mirion and Paragon will provide the nuclear industry with a more comprehensive suite of product offerings and services to meet their growing needs; we have created a best-in-class leader for the future of new nuclear."

Thomas Logan,
Mirion Chairman and CEO
