

PREFACE

The following papers deal with the very timely subject of nuclear safeguards and were presented at the November meeting of the American Nuclear Society in San Francisco. This is the first compilation that we have published on this subject. We will welcome your comments on these papers and any additional work that you feel should be published. We are indebted to Mr. Bartel for the effort required to coordinate the publication of this group of papers.